The Society was honoured to receive the "Supreme Inclusive Organisation" award in 2013-14 Talent-Wise Employment Charter and Inclusive Organisations Recognition Scheme. This award is a point of pride and commends the Society's efforts in promoting employment of persons with disabilities and propagating the message of social inclusion.

The above Scheme was launched by the Labour and Welfare Bureau in collaboration with the Rehabilitation Advisory Committee, the Hong Kong Council of Social Service and the Hong Kong Joint Council for People with Disabilities. It aims to ally the Government, business sector, public and subvented bodies as well as non-governmental organisations to further promote the employment of persons with disabilities through implementing the Charter. With concerted efforts, persons with disabilities would thereby be able to unleash their potential and enhance their self-reliance whereas a caring, supportive and inclusive society would be built for all.

This year, the Scheme received support from 375 participating organisations and there were three major awards of recognitions namely "Partnering", "Outstanding" and "Supreme" Inclusive Organisations. Ms Becky Luk, our Executive Director, and Ms Lee Sin Ying, catering attendant of Madam Hong Cafe attended the award presentation ceremony held on 6 September 2014. The Society was very pleased to be one of the 38 organisations receiving the top-honour award of "Supreme Inclusive Organisation".

The Society pledges to put the Charter into practice through actively carrying out effective measures to create more employment opportunities for persons with disabilities and provide them with timely assistance according to their job nature and actual situation at work, with a view to promoting inclusive culture and building a caring and supportive society for all.
